i started out in the early 80's with a bar band, convoluted through several rock bands that morphed into a cover band in 90's doing 50's thru 00's and finally i'm looking to publish some originals on an album or two. blues, rock, funk, jazz, and pop. glenn stanton - compositions, arrangements, performances. i started out as a child, grew up listening to lots of music and decided music was for me. started on guitar, found bass chops, tickled ivory, beat drums, and found that some of my stuff might be worth recording so here it is.
