Biography

Alfonzo Wilcox better known as "Al" was born to a middle class family in Rochester New York in 1961. He is the third of six children and currently resides in Miami, Fl. Alfonzo learned at the early age of 8 that he had a gift for singing when his aunt asked him to sing a song for her. His song of choice was "I found love on a two way street" and although the song choice was mature for his young voice, he managed to amaze everyone with his vocal abilities and ranges. It was at this time that his aunt insisted that his parents immediately enroll him in voice lessons. He was able to mimic the sounds of icons such as Michael Jackson and had mastered the dance moves to boot! In 1973 the family moved to Miami Florida where he attended church on a regular basis. In his youth choir, he has performed with greats like Terence D' Arby and many others. Growing up in church and singing with in the choir developed not only the soulful sound we hear today, but an anointing that brings those who hear his music, into a state of rejoicing and worship before the Lord. Alfonzo later sang in competition chorus at Miami Carol City Senior High School under the tutelage of Dr. Devore, and later developed a talent to play drums and then moved on to keyboards. After high school he married his childhood sweetheart and they had five children together. He proved himself to be a loving, passionate father and devoted husband. Alfonzo being strengthened and called by God, has taken his place and stand in life. He currently serves
