BAND STORY

I'm a person who can really appreciate being "different." Because being like everybody else is insufficient for my short attention span. As such, I have interests in things like science, Esperanto, computer animation and alternate history. In addition to that, life is mostly boring according to my current way of thinking. The reason for that is because I'm of the mind that "society" puts too much emphasis on doing things that have been done to death. Also, I have a very high regard for self-expression. In fact, I would talk and talk and talk and never shut up if I had my way. But since I can't always have my way, I reluctantly tend to be silent. And I hate being silent! How about giving me an excuse to talk and talk and talk and never shut up?!
